Thanks, Laura.

Rachel and Emily, thanks for adding the following to the list. Please notice, several of them are already on our Gold King Mine list, so cross-check and remove as needed.

Thanks, R.

Please include me, as well: Jenkins.Laura@epa.gov

Also, if you're maintaining an Area-wide media distribution list, I've attached the latest version of the list we're using to forward media messages. Several names have been added since we originally transmitted.

Actually, they may not be. Would you tell me what names need to be on these releases?

You, Rich, Lisa, obviously. Who else?

Thanks, R.

Do you know if r8 contacts are included in this distribution?

In answer to previous? Callers can just ID the GoldKing mine as the conference call id. Less confusing as it changes everyday
